

Theology on Tap NYC

A Young Adult Apostolate for adults in their 20s, 30s & early 40s

Interesting Speakers, Good Company, Lively Conversation

Come out for drinks/dinner, hear an interesting talk on important Catholic issues, and meet other young adult Catholics of NYC

Here is our Fall 2009 “Six Pack” of Lectures

September 28, 2009: “Catholics in Entertainment” Speaker: Jim Gaffigan, Stand-up Comedian and Actor

October 26, 2009: “Latin Mass, Tridentine Mass, New Mass...What Happened to Just THE MASS?”
Speaker: Fr. Joseph Tyrrell, Master of Ceremonies at St. Patrick's Cathedral

October 5, 2009: “The Priesthood – Is It In Crisis or On the Rise?” Speaker: Fr. Luke Sweeney, Director of Vocations for the Archdiocese of New York

November 9, 2009: “Catholic Dating, Marriage, and Then Divorce?” Speaker: Fr. Richard Gill, LC, Moderator of ToTNYC, Director of Our Lady of Mt. Kisco Retreat Center, and Catholic marriage counselor

October 19, 2009: “How To Break Free from Destructive Tendencies” Speaker: Fr. Jonathan Morris, LC, Vatican Analyst for FoxNews

November 16, 2009: “Made for More: Why Be Ordinary When You Can Be Great?”
Speaker: Curtis Martin, Founder of FOCUS, a national university apostolate

Location: Metro 53 Bar and Restaurant, 307 East 53rd Street, btwn 2nd and 1st Avenues
(Take E/V/6 Trains to 53rd Street/51st Street And Lexington Avenue)

Time: Happy ½ Hour at 7pm, Lecture at 7:30pm-8:30pm. Stay afterwards for drinks and fellowship!

Please visit us at <http://www.totnyc.org> for more information.